As we were made in the image of God, everyone of His sons and daughters ought to reflect the image of the heavenly. 2 Corinthians in the Living Bible describes it this way: "But we Christians have no veil over our faces; we can be mirrors that brightly reflect the glory of the Lord. And five of them were wise — Prudent and provident; and five foolish — Inconsiderate and careless. These latter took their lamps — Took up a profession of the true religion; but took no oil with them — No more than kept them burning just for the present. None to . So the five wise and the five foolish virgins were all "Bride Candidates" by their own estimation. They all had the Lamp of the commandments. But only the Wise Virgins allowed "Messiah-in-them" to provide the Light of living out the Torah in their daily lives.
