O my Luve is like a red, red rose. Born on 25 January in Alloway, Scotland, to William and Agnes Brown Burnes, Robert Burns followed his father's example by becoming a tenant farmer.

You've seen it on greeting cards, you've seen it in school, and there's a good chance that the line "my love is like a red, red rose" is one of the first things that comes to mind when you think of poetry ("A Red, Red Rose" is one of the first poems that many children learn).

A Red, Red Rose by Robert Burns..O my Luves like a red red rose Thats newly sprung in June O my Luves like the melodie Thats sweetly playd in tune. As fair art thou my bonnie lass So. Page/5(80). O my Luve's like a red, red rose, That's newly sprung in June: O my Luve's like the melodie, That's sweetly play'd in tune. As fair art thou, my bonie lass, So deep in luve am I; And I will luve thee still, my dear, Till a' the seas gang dry. Till a' the seas gang dry, my dear.

The poem "A Red, Red Rose" expresses the theme of intense love. The poet seeks to strike a balance between eternal and temporal forms of love in this poem, reminding the readers of the fact that beauty is transitory, but love is eternal. O my Luve's like a red, red rose, That's newly sprung in June; O my Luve's like the melodie That's sweetly play'd in tune. As fair are thou, my bonie lass, So deep in luve am I; And I will luve thee still, my Dear, Till a' the seas gang dry.
